Welcome to 2021. Although it does not feel any different from last (still feels like some weird form of alter-virtual reality realm) we are hopeful we will turn the corner this year. Thank you each and everyone of you for your support over the last year. You truly are the reason we are here today. It was fantastic to see you during the five months we were able to conduct tastings on the property and it really drove home what was most important in life...our relationships with one another.

Hopefully, you are all taking time to care for yourselves by spending time with your favorite hobby, taking hikes in the beautiful outdoors, creating new recipes, trying new wines, or revisiting your standby favorites. We have several new wines we will be releasing this year, one of which will make its debut in our 2021 February wine club release. So, if you are not a club member you may want to take this time to call and join the party.

There are many exciting new things planned for this year, should 2021 be friendlier than last. However, we know how that goes these days so keep your eyes on your email box for more recipes, tasting notes, wine promos and merchandise. We also invite you to join us on social media through Instagram (Instagram.com/bergholdvineyard) and Facebook (Facebook.com/bergholdvineyard) to stay in touch on a regular basis, become familiar with the faces behind the scenes and all that wonderful crazy action that brings wine to your glass. Be sure to tag us in your photos (#bergholdvineyard or @bergholdvineyard) whether you are sipping in your back yard, pairing wine with your home-made recipes, or visiting us when we reopen.

We love seeing you enjoy life and love sharing life with you! Til we meet again - Cheers!
